NIPER inks MoU with tibbi college

Dec 13, 2025, 12:04 AM IST

Patna: The National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (NIPER), Hajipur, on Friday inked a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Government Tibbi College & Hospital (GTCH), Patna, to strengthen collaboration in teaching, research and innovation activities. The MoU was signed by NIPER's director K Ruckmani and GTCH principal Mohammad Mahfoozur Rahman in the presence of senior faculty members.

Speaking on the occasion, Ruckmani underlined the institute's commitment to driving meaningful collaborations that advance scientific research and skill development.

Under this agreement, both the institutions will undertake joint research projects and collaborative academic initiatives and cooperate in areas of pharmaceutical formulation, drug delivery, medical devices, biotechnology, regulatory sciences, clinical research, pharmacy analytics, and emerging technologies.
